TechTime Electronics & Technology News

Techtime Media Kit 2017

Techtime is a daily news source for the Electronics Industry in Israel. We give daily coverage of business, supply-chain and technology developments, announcements and analysis. Our readers include engineers and decision makers in the local industry. The website and its newsletter reach more than 15,000 readers a month.
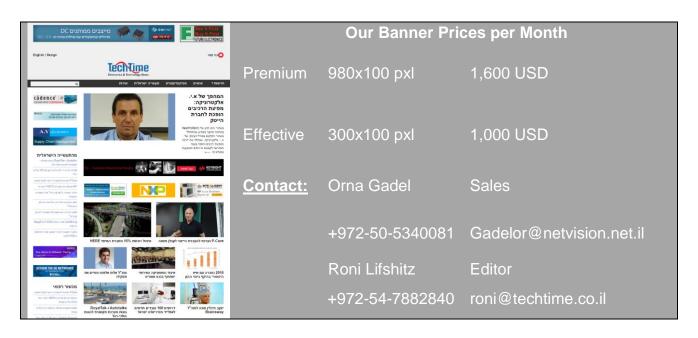

Techtime gives excellent visibility opportunity to every vendor that targets the local industry.

Along with the banners, we give our customers many value added services:

- Editorial coverage
- Product announcements as needed
- Promoting seminars and events in the websites and in our newsletter
- Publishing your professional articles: Each article will stay on the front page for one month before move to inner pages in the relevant categories.

About us: Eng. Lifshitz served as a Professional Advisor to the Minister of Science and Technology in the State of Israel. He was the Editor of High-tech and Technology sections in Globes and Haaretz, and the professional magazines Technologies and Electronica.
